Sunela Thomas's Butterfly #324

from Bucilla Blue Book #3 1916, Butterfly Edging 324

Wind shuttle CTM

(DO NOT REVERSE WORK until indicated)

Head: R: 10----6----10 close

Body: C: 6 - 12

R: 6 - 6 close C: 12 - 6 and join to base of head C: 6 & join to picot on previous bar RW

Right Upper Wing:

R: 7 - 6 - 5 - 5 - 5 - 6 - 7 close

Right Lower Wing:

R: 6 + (last picot on upper wing)

5 - 5 - 5 - 6 close

Fasten to picot at middle of body C:

12 + (join across lower part of body)

12 + (join to picot on opposite side of body)

Left Lower Wing:

R: 6 - 5 - 5 - 5 - 6 close

Left Upper Wing:

R: 7 + (last picot on the lower wing) 6 - 5 - 5 - 5 - 6 - 7 close

Fasten to picot at middle of body C: 6 + (join to base of head) RW

“EEEEEE..THIS WAS VERY DIFFICULT TO DO!” (Georgia)

Outside Row:

C: 6 + (join to 2nd picot of the large R)

3 - 3 - 3 + (join to next picot)

3 - 3 - 3 - 3 + (join to next picot)

3 - 3 - 3 + (join to next picot)

4 + (join to the picot that joins the lower and upper wings)

3 - 3 - 3 + (join to the next picot)

3 - 3 - 3 - 3 + (join to the next picot)

3 - 3 - 3 + (join to the next picot)

4 + (join to the middle of the body)

The instructions then state: join to the middle picot on the opposite side of the body and repeat in reverse order for other side. I had real difficulty in joining to the opposite side of the body. This is leaving a string in the back that is awkward looking, too. Georgia
